Twilight* continues at the Salinas Public Library
Vampires, Werewolves and Damsels in Distress

August 27, 2009 - The Twilight Saga Book Club series that kicked off at the Salinas Public Libraries earlier this summer is in full swing. This is a two-year program of book discussions, theatrical productions, movie screenings and “Big Events” – all focused on the four novels in Stephenie Meyer’s Twilight Saga series that involve vampires, werewolves and damsels in distress.

Tweens, teens and adults are encouraged to participate in any or all of the free programs detailed below. Find a theme, find a group and come out and show your Twilight love!
