Salinas imposes substantive limits on residential and commercial evictions due to COVID-19

Salinas, CA -- On Friday, March 20, 2020, Salinas City Manager Ray Corpuz Director of Emergency Services for the City of Salinas issued an order imposing substantive limitation on residential and commercial evictions to protect the health, safety and welfare of the community. The order becomes effective immediately.

"It is important for everyone to stay connected and be well informed of rapidly changing news. This measure was issued in efforts to protect our families, residents and businesses from being displaced," stated Salinas Mayor Joe Gunter.
